

Business Opportunities with Hall Stage

Hall Stage has a distinguished and outstanding tradition of innovation – a unique position in the UK theatre equipment industry. With a comprehensive skill-set, the company designs, installs, services, maintains and distributes a broad range of high quality engineered products for the entertainment industry. Established in 1898, the company has supplied equipment to virtually every theatre in the UK and for thousands of stages, TV & Film studios around the world.

Global Marketplace

Hall Stage equipment has been supplied around the World for over 80 years.

Today, Hall Stage is a globally recognised brand name - proud of its roots in the British engineering industry, but now with business partners & representatives in more than 20 countries. In fact, more than 25% of its output is dedicated to supporting the entertainment industry outside the UK and the company rightly regards itself as a European company.

Hall Stage has a highly valued network of dealers, resellers, distributors, installers and agents all around the World and is continuously looking for new markets & sectors to develop. Currently experiencing sustainable growth in double figures each year, the business has a very encouraging future and we are looking for enthusiastic partners to share in this success.

If you are interested in representing Halls in your particular area, country or region, we'd be very interested in hearing from you.

Partner Contracts are fully negotiable and can be tailored to suit your future business plans. We are currently working with the UK Government Department of Trade & Industry & the Foreign Office to develop a range of package offers, account schemes and promotional support opportunities designed to fit your own market profile.

As an initial contact, please complete the attached form and we'll get straight back to you with some ideas for your consideration.

I look forward to hearing from you.
